

L.P. Consultants, LLC

Enfield, CT

860-558-9887 | KMajmudar@lpconsultantsllc.com

Qualifications: Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah
M.Sc. Engineering, 1971

M.S. University of Baroda, Baroda, India
B.E. Engineering, 1969

Registrations: Professional Engineer
Connecticut, Massachusetts, (Vermont and Rhode Island)

Experience:

1981 - Present Principal of L.P. Consultants, Enfield, CT.

The experience includes responsibility for all Civil and Structural Engineering projects, including preparation of drawings and management of construction.

Recently completed project includes Mystic River Bascule Bridge that required extensive rehabilitation including new prefabricated Control House Architectural design, its framing, connection to existing riveted plate girders, HVAC, all utilities, etc.

Currently involved in a 24 story Office and Hotel building, Springfield, Mass. project where below grade parking Garage drive in ramps concrete deck, corroded steel beams and Cooling Tower supports, 27th level, need repairs including contractor selection and administration of construction during traffic and pedestrian conditions.

Recently completed projects include short span bridges, part of Busway, New Britain, CT, drainage, a pedestrian, aluminum deck bridge, Windsor Locks, site field survey, site inspections, co-ordination with other designers and CT Science Center, Hartford where exterior cladding and support framing design was a major component. Also, served on commercial Nuclear power generation plant piping and support repairs and vendor co-ordination for Westinghouse.

The experience also includes serving Architects on various residential and commercial facilities.

Also managed, on site construction inspectors on waste water treatment plant and sewer installation construction.

His 30 years of professional design and construction management experience also includes Consulting Engineering practice, with all the responsibilities of Client relations, design, quality control and production.